

The Anaphylaxis campaign
Helping people with severe allergies live their lives

FOOD ALLERGY: how to manage the risks

BOOK NOW – TO AVOID DISAPPOINTMENT!

An interactive workshop for 20 parents whose food allergic children attend nursery, infant or primary school.

Place: The Arden Hotel & Lesiure Club, Coventry Road,
Bickenhill, Solihull B92 0EH

Date: Sunday, 03 October 2010

Time: 1pm - 5pm

Cost: FREE - although donations are always gratefully received. The Campaign relies on charitable trusts, foundations and individuals to fund these workshops.

Aim: To help parents of children aged 3 to 11 to assess the risks associated with living with food allergy.

Have increased confidence in making management decisions.

Prepare for transition to secondary school and eventual “letting go” of their allergic child.

For more information or to book places:-

Please go to the “events” page of our website www.anaphylaxis.org.uk.

E-mail: Gill Elliott at gill@anaphylaxis.org.uk

Write to Gill Elliott,
The Anaphylaxis Campaign,
PO Box 275,
Farnborough,
Hampshire, GU14 6SX
Tel: 01252 893859 – direct line

Registered Charity No. 1085527