

'Go Orange at School' for the Anaphylaxis Campaign!

Support our Anaphylaxis Awareness Week from 6th -12th of May 2019, raising awareness and funds to support people with severe allergies

Here are some fundraising ideas to get you started...

Things to do

- Bake Off - Download our free 'Allergy Bake-off Challenge' at www.anaphylaxis.org.uk and sell some sweet treats at school
- Coin Trail - Create the word 'allergy' out of donated coins
- Fashion Show - Dress in some funky orange outfits and our orange wigs and bring colour to your classroom
- Talent Show/Greatest Dancer - Hold your own charity event and showcase the best talent across the school
- Sweet Stall - Sell 'orange flavoured sweets' after school to your friends
- Sports Day - Hold a sports day with an orange theme
- Mufti Day - Express yourself in anything orange
- Table Top Sale - sell unwanted toys and games in good condition after school
- Art contest - Create a quirky and original piece of artwork , using different media and shades of orange (sunsets, lions etc)

Things to buy

Anaphylaxis branded wrist bands, orange wigs, t-shirts and stickers are all available through our website <https://www.anaphylaxis.org.uk/shop/> . All of the proceeds go directly to our charity. Call 01252 893850 or email us to get your special schools' discounted rate.

Things to learn

Help your school to become more allergy aware by using some of our fantastic school lesson and assembly resources. Available from our website. Perhaps ask someone with an allergy in your school if they want to share their story about what it is like to manage allergies on a daily basis.
